deBlock

Structure of articles for submission to the deBlock International Event – (ISC format):

- Title: The title should be concise and clearly convey the main topic of the research
- Author(s): Include names of all authors along with their affiliations (institution, department). The corresponding author should be highlighted.
- Abstract: A brief summary (typically 150-250 words) of the main findings of the paper, including the purpose, methods, results, and conclusion.
- Keywords: A list of relevant keywords (usually 3-6) that describe the main topics of the paper.
- Introduction: This section provides background information, the significance of the research, and the objectives of the study.
- Literature Review: A review of existing literature relevant to the research topic, highlighting gaps that the current study aims to fill (if applicable).
- Methodology: Detailed description of the research design, materials, methods used for data collection, and analytical procedures.
- Results: Presentation of the findings, typically with the use of tables, graphs, and figures to illustrate key points.
- Discussion: Interpretation of the results, including comparison with previous research, implications, and limitations of the study.
- Conclusion: A brief summary of the findings and their significance, as well as suggestions for future research.
- References A properly formatted list of all the sources cited in the article, following the specific referencing style required by the ISC (e.g., APA, IEEE, etc.).
- Acknowledgments: An optional section to thank those who contributed to the research but do not

Important Notes:

- All articles must be formatted in a single-column layout with appropriate spacing (1.5 or 2 line spacing).
- The recommended font is Times New Roman, size 12.
- Margins: 1 inch on all sides.
- Page numbers must be included.
- Ensure the article has no instances of plagiarism.

Attention

It is important to note that if submitted articles do not adhere to the specified format outlined above, they may be disqualified from the competition. Furthermore, should time permit, non-compliant articles will be returned to authors for necessary revisions.

We hope that by following this structure, your articles will be considered and evaluated at the deBlock event.

Invitation to Contribute: Call for Expert Writers

Dear Esteemed Authors,

We are delighted to extend an invitation to accomplished writers and experts in their respective fields to contribute their insights and research for our upcoming publication. Your expertise and unique perspectives are vital to enriching the discourse within our community.

Submission Guidelines:

First Review Stage:

All submissions will undergo an initial review based on the abstracts provided. Authors are required to submit their abstracts both as part of the main manuscript and as a separate document. Please note that our submission platform accommodates a distinct section for abstract submissions.

Formatting Requirements:

Adherence to our formatting guidelines is essential. Manuscripts that do not conform to these specifications will be disqualified from the review process.

Topics of Focus:

The primary topics outlined in our subject guidelines are integral to the framework of our publication. While adherence to these topics is mandatory, we welcome original articles that align with your specific areas of interest.

Submission Deadline:

Please be aware that the deadline for article submissions will not be extended under any circumstances. We encourage authors to allocate adequate time for the preparation and submission of their manuscripts.

Page Limit:

Articles should not exceed a maximum of 25 pages. Manuscripts that exceed this limit will not be considered for review.

Article Limit:

Each author may submit only one article for consideration. Our review committee will not accept multiple submissions from a single author.

Awards:

We are pleased to announce the following recognitions:

1. First Place in each category will receive 1.5 an Ethereum
2. Second Place in each category will receive 0.75 an Ethereum
3. 4. 5. Third, Fourth and Fifth places Places will each receive 0.25 an Ethereum

Your adherence to these guidelines is crucial for the successful consideration of your manuscript. Please note that failure to comply with any of these points will result in disqualification from the review process.

Thank you for your collaboration,
The Scientific Committee of the deBlock Event
